

Resources for Advancing Health Equity

March 2018

Compiled By:

Women's Health Branch, Division of Public Health

NOTES:

Effective fiscal year 2019, there are new requirements in the Women's Health Branch Agreement Addenda. The new guidelines require all staff to participate in at least one training annually focused on health equity, health disparities, and/or social determinants of health. Below are free training opportunities to meet the new guidelines.
